

I, _____ agency owner of the _____ Insurance Agency have recommended to Mr & Mrs. _____ who reside at _____ to insure their home located at this stated address for $_____. I have made this recommendation based on the actual size, materials of construction, quality of construction and local prevailing construction factors. It is my professional opinion this is adequate coverage to replace the home at this address if it were totally destroyed or substantially damaged. I have taken into consideration all prevailing factors in the event of such a loss including cost of debris removal, foundation excavation & replacement and Architect or Engineering fees in addition to the actual cost of structure replacement.

In the event Mr and Mrs. _____ were to suffer a total or substantial loss to their dwelling and were underinsured as a result of my recommendation I shall without delay provide Mr and Mrs. _____ with the insurance company name, phone number and policy number of my Errors and Omissions insurance carrier and swear under oath Mr and Mrs. _____ chose the amount of insurance on their home based on my professional recommendation.
